

Online sat engleskog jezika

3.razred-New Success Upper Intermediate
Unit 5- Lesson: Social networking addiction
Vocabulary practice

Srednja škola Antuna Branka Šimića Grude

Task 1

Open your SB p. 47, or go to the previous lesson, read the article and match the underlined words and phrases in the text to the meanings 1-11.

Vocabulary Match the underlined words and phrases in the text to the meanings 1–11.

engrossed in    crossed the line    compulsion    posting    seductive    going cold turkey
neglecting    pinpoint    friending    out of hand    sneak

- 1 attractive enough to lead you into a trap _____
- 2 do something without people noticing _____
- 3 gone beyond the normal limit _____
- 4 identify exactly _____
- 5 making friends with someone on a social networking site _____
- 6 not caring enough about _____
- 7 stopping suddenly, even if it makes you feel bad _____
- 8 uploading to a social networking site _____
- 9 completely focused on _____
- 10 something you can't stop yourself doing _____
- 11 out of control _____

Task 2

Complete the sentences with the correct form of some of the underlined words and phrases from the text.

Complete the sentences with the correct form of some of the underlined words and phrases from the text.

engrossed in crossed the line compulsion posting seductive going cold turkey
neglecting pinpoint friending out of hand sneak

- 1 Casinos are designed to make you want to stay and spend money – the atmosphere is incredibly .
- 2 Be careful who you  on your social networks. Your friend might  an embarrassing photo that you don't want anyone to see!
- 3 The film had already started, but I managed to  into the cinema without anyone noticing.
- 4 We need to  exactly what went wrong with the experiment.
- 5 You spend far too much time online. It's getting . You're starting to  your other obligations.

Task 3

Do you agree or disagree?

- Everyone needs a way of relaxing, whether it's watching TV, doing crossword puzzles, playing football or social networking. None of them is any better or worse than any other.
- Social networking is not worth the risk. You don't want your aunt to see photos of you with your friends ... or vice versa.
- It's difficult to turn down a friend request from someone you'd prefer to forget, and almost impossible to de-friend someone you no longer like.

For your homework, choose one of the points and write a short presentation about it, giving both sides of the argument.
Note! Remember to use the techniques you have already learnt for keeping the audience involved.

Check task 1 here!

Vocabulary Match the underlined words and phrases in the text to the meanings 1–11.

- 1 attractive enough to lead you into a trap
- 2 do something without people noticing
- 3 gone beyond the normal limit
- 4 identify exactly
- 5 making friends with someone on a social networking site
- 6 not caring enough about
- 7 stopping suddenly, even if it makes you feel bad
- 8 uploading to a social networking site
- 9 completely focused on
- 10 something you can't stop yourself doing
- 11 out of control

seductive

sneak

crossed the line

pinpoint friending

neglecting

going cold turkey

posting

engrossed in compulsion

out of hand

Check task 2 here!

Complete the sentences with the correct form of some of the underlined words and phrases from the text.

engrossed in crossed the line compulsion posting seductive going cold turkey
neglecting pinpoint friending out of hand sneak

- 1 Casinos are designed to make you want to stay and spend money
– the atmosphere is incredibly  . ✓
- 2 Be careful who you  ✓ on your social networks. Your friend might ✓ an embarrassing photo that you don't want anyone to see!
- 3 The film had already started, but I managed to  ✓ into the cinema without anyone noticing.
- 4 We need to  ✓ exactly what went wrong with the experiment.
- 5 You spend far too much time online. It's getting  . ✓
You're starting to  ✓ your other obligations.