

Proverbs

A "proverb" is a short, traditional saying in general use. It usually expresses some obvious truth or familiar experience. The word Proverb is taken from the Latin word proverbium. Proverbs speak to a simple truth or are often considered common sense, but are expressed usually in a one line sentence.

1. "He teaches ill, who teaches all."

The word "ill" here means "badly".

So it means that the teacher who teaches students everything, does not teach well. A good teacher lets students discover some things for themselves.

2. "Soon learnt, soon forgotten."

Something that is easy to learn is easy to forget.

3. "Where there's a will there's a way."

If we have the determination to do something, we can always find the path or method to do it.

4. "The best advice is found on the pillow."

If we have a problem, we may find the answer after a good night's sleep.

5. "An apple a day keeps the doctor away."

Eating an apple every day can help to keep you healthy.

6. A friend to all is a friend to none.

Someone who is a friend to everyone makes none of them feel special.

7. A new broom sweeps clean.

A newly-appointed person makes changes energetically.

8. Home is where the heart is.

You call home the place where the people you love are.

9. Man proposes, God disposes.

Our destiny depends on God's will.

10. Money is the root of all evil.

Money is the main cause of wrongdoing and problems.
